Refer to the Guide for the Care and Use of Laboratory Animals 8th Edition 2011 (the Guide). 'Applicants' are Staff or Students of the Faculty of Veterinary Medicine, Benha University. Effective alternatives to using live animals must be considered. All use of animals for any purpose must be justified. Investigators have personal responsibility for all matters related to the welfare of the animals they use and must act in accordance with all requirements of the Guide. This responsibility begins when an animal is allocated to a project and ends with its fate at the completion of the project. Investigators have an obligation to treat animals with respect and to consider their welfare when planning and conducting projects.
